

Michael Winger has joined Meridian Design Build as director of the company's Special Projects Group.

Meridian's newly formed Special Projects Group will focus its efforts building upon the company's recent success completing build-to-suit projects outside of the Chicago market for its national clients.

Winger has worked in the construction industry for more than 20 years and has significant experience pursuing and delivering large design/build projects for local and national clients. Winger graduated from Purdue University with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering in 1991 and earned his master's degree in business administration from University of Iowa in 1995.
