

Meridian Design Build recently completed a new 38,713-sq.-ft. tenant space for Lewis-Goetz and Company, Inc., within the 260,000-sq.-ft. speculative building recently completed by Meridian Design Build for DP Partners at DP's LogistiCenter™ at Sauk Village in Sauk Village. Lewis-Goetz will consolidate its manufacturing/distribution operations from South Holland and Bolingbrook. The project included 5,000 sq. ft. of office build-out, overhead crane foundations, and a significant amount of electrical wiring. There was also water distribution and process ventilation to accommodate welding stations, saws, and other manufacturing equipment. Joe Blanchard and Tim Jones handled the project for Meridian. The design team for the project included Harris Architects and Jacob and Hefner Associates, civil engineer. The exclusive leasing agent for the center is the CB Richard.
