

Stadler

Peter Stadler has been promoted to vice president of Meridian Design Build, responsible for overseeing design and construction and development of new projects and working with clients throughout the planning, design, and construction stages. Stadler is a Registered Professional Engineer in Illinois and Wisconsin.